739 Fourth N.W. St. Hedwig's Aid Society hall. Built before 1912, this 2-story brick building had a bar and clubrooms on the first floor and a large auditorium on the second floor.

Anthony Kukleski of 937 Michigan N.E. was the last president of St. Hedwig's. After the society disbanded and the hall was sold in 1965, it was used as a labor hall and later as a church. (Photo: GRPL 287, July 5, 1965, E7861. The house at 733, shown in the photo, was owned and rented out by the Society for income purposes.)
