1860 Boston S.E. This 2-story frame house, owned by Walter Jackson, suffered an electrical fire on the second floor in November, 1956. The house remained vacant after that time and was severely damaged by a $3,500 fire at 3:02 a.m. on Thursday, December 26, 1957. That fire started under a stairway leading to the second floor, burned through the stairs and into the second floor, and spread throughout the first floor.

1919 Boston S.E. Metro Hospital. Built in the mid-1950's as Grand Rapids Osteopathic Hospital, this facility combined two older sites: the Grand Rapids Osteopathic Hospital at 1225 Lake Drive, S.E., and the Burton Heights Osteopathic Hospital at 1912 Division Avenue, S. The site underwent extensive development over several decades, including a completely new hospital building in the 1980's. On Sunday, September 30, 2007, the entire hospital moved to its new location, Metro Health Village at 5900 Byron Center Avenue, S.W., in Wyoming.
