543 Eastern S.E. Fire on Tuesday, March 11, 1958, at 7:24 p.m. was started on the back porch of this building, which was slated for demolition. The upstairs apartment was vacant, while Lindy's Printing Co. and a dime store occupied the first floor commercial areas. The building was owned by the Ohio Oil Co. The fire was advanced enough that a 2-1-1 alarm was called.

2147 Eastern S.E. Frank Goebel built this house about 1923, when the area was nothing but asparagus fields. A World War I veteran, he began displaying an American flag from a cable between two oak trees in the front yard. Goebel served as Grand Rapids' city manager in the late 1940's, and died Monday, April 19, 1993. The day before his funeral, a vandal set fire to the flag.
