135 Summer N.W. William T. Powers built this fine 2-story red brick dwelling on the southwest corner of Summer and Allen around the time of the Civil War. He later moved his family to the fourth floor of his Powers Opera House on Pearl Street. In 1912, this house was the home of F.W. Wurzburg. In later years it was occupied as the Viking Hall, a social club. When it served as an apartment house, the side entrance was addressed as 436 Allen N.W. (Old # 107. Photo: GRPL 273, July 19, 1995.)
